'Bouddi Houses and People'

"More than Bricks and Mortar" by Robyn Warburton

Saturday 12th June 10.00 - 12.00 am

with Morning Tea

President's Notes*President's Notes

The WTKCA AGM was held on May 10th and attended by some 30 members of the organization. Thank you to all who attended. The meeting approved the updated constitution for the Association which brings it into line with Fair Trading Guidelines while not diluting its purpose in defining our raison d'être and focus of activities. The outgoing committee was re-elected with the sad exception of Fay Gunther who was unable to nominate due to ill health. Two new committee members were elected as well. The WTKCA committee is now:

Mike Allsop - President
Richard Urquhart - Vice President
Brent Walker - Treasurer
Ian Bull - Secretary
Robyn Warburton
Gaye Follington
Martin Sieper
Bill Gregor

Many thanks to the outgoing committee for renominating and welcome to the incoming members of the committee. The various tasks of the association will be assigned within the committee and through other convenors appointed by the committee.

Special thanks is reserved for Fay Gunther who has had a passion for this area and the activities of the Association for over 3 decades. Her sterling efforts in support of our major events are the stuff of legend and do set a high standard to be followed. Fay is to be particularly thanked for her dogged efforts back in the 1990s to have Gosford Council approve major improvements to the Wagstaffe Hall which gave it the current configuration, outdoor facilities and enhanced parkland.

The Association will continue to serve the community in many ways. These include the co-funding of various parkland works etc and advocating for other capital works by council or government grant, all while maintaining the lovely character of this area. We especially will continue to collaborate with and provide support to other groups in the area as part of a united community front when we seek assistance from our various levels of government. Plenty to do!

Please contact us at any time with offers of assistance or suggestions on matters of community benefit.

Mike Allsop

BOOK RELEASE – SALE & SIGNING

A fundraiser for the Bouddi Society, the members can be very happy with the success of the day. More than Bricks and Mortar, Bouddi Houses and People by Robyn Warburton was scooped up by quite a few people at the event that was a celebration of its release on Saturday May 23 at Wagstaffe Hall. Many people, whose stories are in the book, were thanked for their contribution and many others were there too. The book will be found entertaining by all.

It is now available at the Morning Tea on June 12 at the hall, at Wagstaffe Store, from Robyn Warburton by calling or texting Robyn at 0416069311, emailing robynwarburton@ozemail.com.au or visiting www.bouddisociety.org.au and going to 'Publications'. The price is $25.00.

WAGSTAFFE BRIDGE CLUB

Fondly referred to as 'Waggy bridge' by those of us who enjoy our gatherings, the Bridge Club meets at 1.20 pm every Friday afternoon at Wagstaffe Hall.

Set up by Helen Ferguson some 20 years ago, the 12 months' COVID closure has had quite an impact on numbers, though we are now up and running again, with numbers slowly increasing.

We play Standard American at an intermediate to intermediate plus level, typically 15 boards over a couple of hours, rounding the afternoon off with a friendly cuppa at about 3.45 pm. A lovely way to finish the week. A simple scoring process gives immediate results.

And the cost is $2.

Please ring Graeme Anderson at 0414689922 for more information

Don't be concerned if you are new to the area or don't have a playing partner.

We warmly welcome new members; the bonus is you are guaranteed to meet some interesting local characters in the process. We hope to see you soon!

P.S. For anyone transitioning towards living in the Hardys Bay-Pretty Beach-Wagstaffe area, 'Waggy Bridge' can be a great way to join the community and get to know a few of the locals.

SPECIAL CONCERT AT WAGSTAFFE HALL

The Central Coast has produced many great musicians over the years. This year is no exception with some of the Central Coast's most talented young musicians performing in a concert in Wagstaffe Hall on the long weekend in June.

Featured musicians include vocalist and guitarist Riley Lovell, pianist Kimberley Gilbert, and singer/songwriters Ella Powell, Ebony de Luca, Jacinta-Rose Burley and Lucy Parle.

Each of the above performers has been a recipient of the Bouddi Foundation for the Arts Award.

Renowned local jazz musician and author Dorian Mode presents, and also performs in, the concert.

The Bouddi Society is excited to be hosting this concert, especially after a year of absence. Subject to sudden changes in the Covid situation, we can seat a full house.

Don't miss out – put the date on your calendar.

WHEN: Sunday, 13 June, 2021

TIME: 2.00pm

COST: Tickets are $20.00 per person ($15 for Bouddi Society members) and available at the door.

All proceeds go towards covering the administrative costs of the Bouddi Foundation for the Arts which gives young artists a start to a career in their chosen field.
