BUMPER TURNOUT EXPECTED FOR BOUDDI PENINSULA ARTS TRAIL

TV and social media coverage this year has seen a significant jump in public interest for this year's Arts Trail. Feedback from the community and the number of pre trail inquiries tell us the 2023 Arts Trail is going to be very successful. Part of the growing interest has come from our new internet site www.bouddipeninsulaartstrail.org, which along with our Facebook site carries the trail map, to be delivered with Talking Turkey as well.

Artists and their partners have begun circulating brochures. Corflutes and banners are being readied and red flags are awaiting erection to mark artists' locations.

Locals and visitors who are up for a celebratory drink and chat can join us the KoWorks After Party at the Killcare SLSC on Sunday 1st October 5-9pm. Go the QR code on the back of the trail map to order your tickets ($19 each) .

We hope you will enjoy what the Arts Trail offers to you and our community in general.

President's Notes

There is a lot happening from late September and through October. KSLSC are holding their Community Open Day on Sunday September 24 in conjunction with other emergency services, then the Killcare RFB are holding their own open day on Saturday September 30. Both of these events are important to community safety and will be a good opportunity for the whole family to refresh themselves on safety advice. September 30 is also the start of the October Long Weekend. The annual Art Exhibition will be held in Wagstaffe Hall on both Saturday and Sunday with the Opening on Saturday afternoon at 3.00. The local Bouddi Arts Trail will also be held that weekend with a route guide to find the artists who are opening their studios to the public. And we might even have the Palm Beach ferry service back in operation if dredging continues to plan. We'll miss the frequent Ettalong shuttle ferry but it is clear from demand that Fantasea should enhance their timetable to give us something similar. Finally, the annual Book Fair will be held in Wagstaffe Hall on Saturday October 14 from 9am. Donations received from 4pm Friday 13. Note that the polling place for the Oct 14 Referendum will be Hardys Bay Community Church. If you are out anyway, make sure to drop buy for bargains on books, CDs, DVDs and vinyl.
